

Historical Sheet of David Kump (1801-1872)

*Prepared by Laura C. Kump (great granddaughter-in-law)
Transcribed & Edited by Chad G. Nichols (3rd great grandson)*

- 1801 David was born 6 May 1801 to John and Barbara Bentzel Kump in York County, Pennsylvania. He grew up in Dover Township which was about 7 miles north of York. His father was a farmer. David learned the skills of farming from his father and grandfather in a community of German speaking friends.
- 1825 At the age of 24 he married Barbara Naylor. They setup housekeeping in West Manchester a few miles south of Dover. Children born here were: Caroline 25 Jan 1826, Edward 5 Feb 1828, Zachariah 3 Jul 1830.
- 1830 Pennsylvania Census lists David as head of household at West Manchester Township.
- 1830 to 1832 Federal land available in Ohio for settlers, so David and his brother, Daniel, with their families moved to Poland Township, Trumbull County, Ohio. In 1846 Poland was located in a new county, Mahoning, which was originally Trumbull County.
- 1832 to 1845 4 children were born to this family in Ohio, however no birth dates have been found even though correspondence with the churches in Poland has been made: Mary Amanda about 1832, Lewis about 1834, Harriet about 1837, and Israel about 1845.
- 1840 Ohio Census lists David as the head of household at Poland Township, Trumbull County. Lists 1 male age 5-10, 2 males age 10-15, 1 male age 40-50, 1 female age 1-5, 1 female age 5-10, 1 female age 10-15, and 1 female age 30-40.
- 1846 Mahoning County made from Trumbull and Columbiana Counties, which places Poland in the new Mahoning County.
- 1850 Wisconsin Census lists the Kump family at Town of Koshkonong, Jefferson County, indicating a move to Wisconsin. The census lists David as a "farmer" and his two oldest boys, Edward and Zachariah, as "laborers". The census lists David, Barbara, and children, Edward, Zachariah, Amanda, Lewis, Harriet, and Israel.
- 1856 David and family in Sumner Township, Jefferson County, Wisconsin. Edward married Polly Ann Plum 20 Nov 1856. Harriet married James Carpenter 29 Aug 1856.
- 1860 Wisconsin Census shows Kump family at Sumner Township, Jefferson County. Both David and Lewis were listed as "Farmers." Barbara and Israel are also listed.
- 1861 Lewis married Carolina Charleson 27 Oct 1861 of Oakland, Wisconsin.
- 1870 Wisconsin Census shows Kump family at Sumner Township, Jefferson County. David, Barbara, and Israel are the only family members listed at the time of census. Both David and Israel are listed as "Farmers."
- 1872 David died 27 Jan 1872 at age 70-8-21 and buried at Sumner Township, Jefferson, Wisconsin.
- 1880 Barbara died 19 Feb 1880 at age 74-1-14 and buried at Sumner Township, Jefferson, Wisconsin.